

Biogas Agriculture & energy

We invite you to a talk and discussion with Andy Bull on the development of biogas technology in the UK over recent years.

Andy will be concentrating on the potential of anaerobic digestion to improve agricultural practice and reduce greenhouse gas emissions and nitrate & phosphate pollution from the livestock industry – whilst also generating some renewable energy.

www.TransitionLlandrindod.org.uk

7.00pm, Tuesday 22nd May
Herb Garden Café
Free entry and refreshments
All welcome